

"I feel I want to just pray starting out..."

...a couple of things were just happening during the worship today, this is the Presence of God in the house so I want to pray a prayer and I want you to listen closely to this prayer...

...I am speaking this to God but I believe this is essential and it is a prophetic word to you in the house. It is a prophetic word to not just you as a house but to the season of the Church, that the Church is finding herself in and you are on the cutting edge of that, you are a part of it...

So Father I pray right now that the things of the past will not resist the things that are now, that the things of the future will not destroy the things of the past so that the things that are release the things that will be.

I'll pray that again...

Father I pray that the things of the past will not resist the things that are and the things that will be will not destroy the things that have been so that the things that are will release the things that will be.

Now I hear the Lord saying...

...He wants to say to you as a church that you are in a season and you are in a time of great significance for you are in a season, you're in a time where things are happening in an increasing way and you're going to see that things are going to expand in the happening way...

...because this is a time when I am speaking even to this region and I am saying "Awake! Awake! Awake! Wake Up! Wake Up! Wake Up!" and there are anointings, there are graces, there are things in places that I have sown in times past that are ready to germinate in this place called 'Today'.

...and there's going to be a generation that's going to wake up in this season says God. There's going to be a generation that is young but not just young in age but also young in heart. For there will be a wakening of that which is coming about and there's going to be a move of the Spirit among the youth, there's going to be a move of the Spirit to renew the youth, there's going to be a move of the Spirit to cause this place to be young in every way but in being young it will also weaken that which has been.

...See even those who are of an older generation that have become young of heart and young of vision and even as I've spoken before let the dream of the old be the vision of the young and the vision of the young be the big dream of the old and let all things be made new in this place. Says God.

...for there are mantles that are even laying in the dust that God is calling His people to trust in, and there's going to be mantles of grace that are going to waken hearts in this place...

And you're going to see that feet are going to be lifted from snares – things that are trying to entangle hearts, and people are going to be set on a course of life that's going to lead to increased life

...and it's not going to be maintained in the walls and the boundaries of that which you would call 'church', but it's going to expand from the boundaries of that which I call 'church' and you're going to see that there's an outstretched arm of My salvation that's going to move forth without reservation and it's going to cause there to be an expanding of the walls...

...AND I'M GOING TO EXTEND THE BOUNDARIES AND YOU'LL HAVE TO TRUST IN THAT WHICH I'M BRINGING FORTH, SAYS GOD.

And God says...
“this is a new day in every way”

...and you're going to see even those who are of an older generation that have become young of heart and young of vision and even as I've spoken before let the dream of the old be the vision of the young and the vision of the young be the big dream of the old and let all things be made new in this place. Says God.

Get ready, get ready, get ready for even as you see things unfolding before you that you see practical things even as in this very room today there are more chairs.”
